

From the Desk of the School Social Worker...

Attendance Awareness Month
9/3/19 to 9/30/19

School attendance is a necessary part of your child's education and attending school in a regular and timely fashion enhances the educational process. To highlight the importance of school attendance, the School Social Services department is announcing an Everybody, Everyday Poem, Poster, and Video Rap/Song Contest during Attendance Awareness Month. Deadline for student submission for the contest is October 31.

Winning students in the Everybody, Every Day Attendance Contest will be recognized by their schools, district administration, and school social work staff. Students will also receive a certificate. The Everybody, Every Day Awards Team will come to each school of the winners to reward them. Contact your school and/or your school social worker for full details or click image.

Your school social worker is a resource for students and families. Please feel free to contact your school social worker, ... , at (386) extension ... or by email at for help with accessing social service assistance, counseling services, medical insurance, referrals to community resources, or if you need help with your child's academic, behavioral, or emotional concerns