Welcome VIPS Volunteer!

Our community is very fortunate to have thousands of volunteers like you who are dedicated to supporting both our students and our schools. Each day our school volunteers display selfless acts of service to assure that all Volusia County public school students receive a quality education in a safe and secure learning environment.

Volunteers work in every aspect of school operation, from classroom and health clinic helpers, one-on-one tutors and mentors, to organizing and staffing special events and extracurricular activities. Volusia Partners become volunteers when they assist with job/career shadowing, career mentoring, youth motivating, resource speaking and other school-to-work programs.

This handbook outlines what is required of you as a Volunteers in Public Schools (VIPS) volunteer and will give you an overview of the program policies, procedures and guidelines that you should be aware of prior to volunteering. If you have any questions, feel free to contact your school’s volunteer coordinator or the district Volunteer/Partnership Programs Department at (386) 255-6475, 734-7190, 427-5223, or 860-3322, ext. 38379 or 38381.

Thank you for providing your precious time, individual gifts and talents as a VIPS volunteer.

Sincerely,

Revised July 2020
Who is a School Volunteer?

A school volunteer is a person willing to take time to share their wisdom and experience. A school volunteer helps to expand and enrich the students’ learning experiences by working under the direction of teachers and school staff.

Occasionally it can be difficult to decide if an individual falls into the classification of a school volunteer. A school volunteer usually meets all of the following criteria:

1. The individual will provide a service to the school.
2. The individual will NOT be compensated monetarily by the school district.
3. The individual will be providing volunteer service for more than one day at any one site (except for chaperones).
4. The individual may have access to students while performing the service.

Qualifications - A genuine interest in students, a professional commitment to your volunteer activity, regular attendance, a cooperative attitude, flexibility, good health, and a willingness to attend training sessions, as needed.

School Volunteer Coordinator

Each school's volunteer program is individualized to meet the needs of the students and teachers at the school. In cooperation with the principal, the school's Volunteer Coordinator directs their volunteer program. Many schools have both a staff contact and a volunteer who work jointly to coordinate the program.

Responsibilities of the school Volunteer Coordinator are:

- Surveying needs of teachers.
- Recruiting and registering volunteers - especially parents.
- Arranging for orientation and training.
- Placing volunteers by matching their skills/interests to job assignments.
- Serving as a resource for volunteers.
- Coordinating school recognition events for volunteers.

GETTING STARTED

If you are not yet a volunteer in our schools, contact the Volunteer/Partnership Programs Department for assistance. You may also contact a school directly and ask to speak with the school’s Volunteer Coordinator. You will be invited to visit the school and asked to complete the online Application to Volunteer. Your photo ID must be scanned prior to volunteering. After you have been cleared to volunteer, the school volunteer coordinator will provide an orientation on school policies and volunteer procedures. A meeting will be scheduled between you and the individual you will be assisting.

Volunteer Registration

Volunteer Application
To become a VIPS school volunteer, interested individuals must complete an online application at www.vcsedu.org. Prior to any volunteer work, the online application must be approved and a government issued photo ID must be scanned at the school site or district office. This application process includes field trip chaperones, mentors, business partners who assist students, and VCSB employees.

Clearance
In compliance with state law, all volunteers’ names and birth dates are checked against the sexual predator and sexual offenders database that is maintained by the Department of Law Enforcement.

Fingerprinting for Overnight Chaperones and Band Adjuncts
All overnight field trip chaperones and band adjuncts (working one-on-one with band students) must be fingerprinted and pass a level II background check through the FDLE and FBI. Screening should be complete at least one month prior providing service. Overnight chaperones and band adjuncts are responsible for the payment of fingerprinting. Contact your school volunteer coordinator or the VIPS office for details.

Renewal
All volunteer approvals expire at the end of each school year. Returning volunteers need to renew and update their application each year after July 1.
Volunteer Guidelines

School Procedures
Each school has specific information for the volunteer to learn. Volunteers need to know fire drill procedures, adult-use restroom locations, school dress code, rules about smoking, parking areas, absence procedures, the location to sign-in and out, wearing an ID badge, opening and closing times of the school, use of the teacher’s lounge, use of cell phones, and general regulations in the school.

Classroom Responsibility
As a volunteer, you are never to be left alone with a student or a group of students. These are the teachers’ responsibilities. You should always be in the line of sight of a school board employee.

Volunteers’ Children
Volunteers are asked not to bring preschool-aged children with them to any volunteer assignments. This presents a liability issue and prevents the volunteer from giving undivided attention to the task at hand and the students. Arrangements could be made to do work at home or, if childcare is arranged and it is given voluntarily, the babysitter’s hours may count as out-of-school volunteer hours.

If You Must Cancel
Because students and teachers depend on volunteers, please do your best to be prompt and dependable. If an illness or an emergency arises, call the school and ask that the teacher be notified that you are unable to volunteer on that day. Please do not come to school if you are ill. This includes a cold, sore throat or cough. You may think you are leaving the teacher shorthanded, and you may want to volunteer even though you are not well, but doing so is not good for you, the children or the teacher. Children learn by example, and we ask that you, as a role model, use good health habits when you are at school.

Appearance and Manner
Volunteers are considered non-paid employees and should be well-groomed and dress professionally. If you are not sure how you should dress, please ask the teacher, your supervisor or your volunteer coordinator. Volunteers should also set a good example to students by maintaining professional conduct and language.

Confidentiality
Respect the confidential nature of anything that you see or hear at the school. Any information about a student’s academic progress, behavior or a school-related incident is strictly confidential. Please share any concerns you have with school administration.

Discipline
Discipline of students is the responsibility of the school staff. Any problems should be reported to the teacher or an administrator.

Identification
When volunteering always: 1) report to the school office; 2) sign in at the kiosk; and 3) wear your ID badge. This will identify you as someone who belongs on campus.

Importance of Signing In and Signing Out
Each time you go to a school to volunteer, you must sign in and wear your ID badge, and sign out when your day’s service is complete. These requirements are necessary for the following reasons:

- Our students’ safety and maintaining campus security is of the utmost importance.
- In case you need to be reached in an emergency, you can be found.
- Verified volunteer service can be used as work experience for future employment.
- Individual volunteers will be recognized for their dedication and service to our schools.
- Schools are eligible for annual state awards are based on their volunteer hours.

Your Volunteer Hours
Please be sure to sign-in at the kiosk to keep track of your volunteer hours. All hours that you provide as a service to the school, including work done at home for the school, should be recorded. These include not only hours in the classroom, but also service hours provided to school’s PTA/PTSA, School Advisory Council or special clubs/organizations.

When making a decision as to what constitutes volunteer service, the hours must be completed while providing nonpaid service to the school, not while attending school event (ex: Open House, school play, athletic event, etc.).

Reporting Child Abuse
If you suspect a student is a victim of child abuse, immediately notify a teacher or school administrator.
Volunteer Status
Volunteers in a school or a program serve at the sole discretion of the building principal, program manager or teacher. Permission to volunteer in a school may be revoked at any time by the building principal or program manager.

Or do you work and would only be available occasionally at night or on the weekends? Maybe you work full-time, but at night, so you still could volunteer during the school day. Some professionals are able to fit an hour of mentoring or tutoring into their schedule, once a week, during their lunch time. Some employers allow flex hours or employee release time to volunteer one hour each week.

Your availability, whether it is during the day, night, or weekend is an important consideration. Also, whether you can commit to a weekly schedule or only sporadically will effect the volunteer opportunities offered to you by schools.

HELPING STUDENTS LEARN

• A student's name is very important. Make sure you say and spell it correctly.
• Make sure your student knows and can pronounce your name. You might give the student a card with your name written on it.
• LISTEN! Show that you are interested in each student as a person. Listen carefully to what the student has to say.
• Students make mistakes. Assure them that this is part of learning.
• Build the student's self-confidence. Praise your student honestly and frequently.
• Encourage students to feel, smell, taste, and listen as well as look at objects. Let students discover.
• Ask questions that may lead students to the answer instead of telling them the answer.
• Let students try new methods, even if you know an easier way.
• Give the students as much time as they need to understand new ideas. Be patient!
• Be reliable. Students will be disappointed when you are absent. Show you care by calling when you can't go to school when expected.
• Allow your own child room to grow. Volunteer in a location other than your child's classroom.

Students Learn By:
• Doing - not by passive observing
• Asking questions and searching for answers to their questions
• Discovering - using all their senses, whenever possible
• Experimenting - sorting and combining objects
• Repeating experiences
• Building confidence in themselves

Communicating with Students:
The following suggestions are provided to help you communicate with students to get positive results.

• Be sure the students understand what you're saying. We sometimes use words they do not comprehend.
• Keep your voice as low as possible. The students will get louder as your voice increases in volume.
• Instruct students as though you expect them to comply. Give sufficient warnings and time. Example: “Jason, in five minutes you'll need to stop painting and put your apron away.”
• If students gain your attention and praise only when they behave, they will soon learn that you expect proper conduct.
• Positive statements greatly influence students' attitudes about themselves and contribute to their success-building experiences.

Some expressions to boost a student's self-image:
"I like the way you're working."
"That's right! Good for you."
"That's quite an improvement."
"Good thinking."
"I'm very proud of the way you worked today."
"It looks like you put a lot of thinking into this."
"That's respectful behavior. Thank you!"

Q & A

How do I become a volunteer?
Contact the Volunteer Coordinator at the desired school or call Volunteer/Partnership Programs. You will be asked to complete the online Application to Volunteer. To complete the process, your government issued ID must be scanned. Applicants may not be placed in a volunteer position prior to clearance. You can contact the VIPS office to check on the status of your clearance.

I do not have teaching experience. Can I still volunteer?
Yes! A teaching background is not required since volunteers work under the direction of the professional staff. Qualifications for a school volunteer are: a personal desire to help, sincere interest in students, ability to follow school procedures and policies, and a willingness to make a definite time commitment. Any necessary training will be provided by the teacher or at a special workshop.

How do I find out which volunteer services are needed?
Each school has a volunteer coordinator who will assist you in your placement. Some schools hold informative orientations which explain the volunteer program and opportunities available. Your volunteer assignment is determined by your skills, interests and preferences, as well as by the needs of individual schools and teachers.

I'd like to volunteer, but I can't offer my services on a regular basis. Can I still volunteer?
Yes! You may volunteer on special school projects or with PTA/PTSA. The time commitment will depend on the specific project. Another possibility is to arrange to take volunteer work home to execute at your convenience.

Suppose I don't feel qualified to perform the assignment I have agreed to undertake?
Feel free to say so. Remember, there are many different jobs. Talk to your teacher/supervisor or volunteer coordinator for possible reassignment. You may also call the district office for placement at a different school.

May I choose the teacher with whom I want to work?
Volunteers are placed only in classrooms where teachers have specifically requested assistance.

I would like to volunteer, but I have a preschool child. Can I bring my child with me?
No. Taking preschool children with you to school presents a liability problem for the school. In addition, having a very young child in a classroom interrupts class procedures, disrupts the students, and prevents the volunteer from giving full attention to the work the teacher has prepared. However, you can still help the school by making arrangements to do work at home. Another possibility is to buddy-up with another volunteer with a preschool child. One baby-sits while the other volunteers. As long as the babysitter is not paid for their services, their hours of babysitting may also be counted as volunteer hours.

What do I do about discipline?
Disciplinary action is the responsibility of the teachers and school staff. Volunteers do not enforce discipline. Think instruction instead of discipline. Request students to work according to the rules in the classroom. Immediately notify the teacher if there is a discipline problem.

My friends and neighbors will ask me about school. What may I say?
We want you to talk about your school and your involvement. But you may have access to "privileged" information, which must be treated as confidential. This includes information about a student’s academic progress, behavior or a school-related incident. Privileged information is important school business and must never be discussed outside of the school. Also, remember that criticizing school personnel and school practices are not acceptable. In school, you are a professional working with other professionals.
